

Jason Lauter | Vice President | MBL Benefits Consulting

Jason Lauter is an accomplished employee benefits expert, with experience spanning over 20 years. He is the Vice President of MBL Benefits Consulting, part of World Insurance Associates, and based in NYC. Jason has dedicated his career to fostering strong partnerships with employers, working closely with them to identify the most cost-effective, and tailored benefits that align with their business needs. Jason's industry knowledge allows him to address gaps in coverage, advise on PEO transitions and to help his clients navigate complicated compliance issues. Outside of work, Jason enjoys spending quality time with his family, and playing sports with his kids.