Marina Edwards

Senior Defined Contribution Strategist
North America Institutional Sales

Marina Edwards is a Senior Defined Contribution Strategist for the North America Institutional Sales team at Invesco. In this role, she specializes in fiduciary risk mitigation strategies for plan sponsors and is a regular speaker at DC conference events.

Ms. Edwards joined Invesco in 2020. Before joining the firm, she was a senior director of retirement in Willis Towers Watson's Benefits Advisory and Compliance group, where she served as a national leader for DC fiduciary, compliance, plan design, vendor search, and fee benchmarking projects. Ms. Edwards has led clients in a wide range of DC plan activities, including vendor search projects for qualified and nonqualified DC plans, plan design studies, merger and acquisition due diligence and strategy, trustee and independent fiduciary searches, fee analysis and benchmark studies, plan compliance reviews, and Puerto Rico plan administration. Prior to that, she worked with an investment management and trust company as an assistant vice president and corporate trust officer, where she managed clients of all sizes. Ms. Edwards has been in the defined contribution industry since 1990.
