

Jennifer R. Schuessler

Regional Director

Jennifer Schuessler is a Regional Director for Empower Retirement. Jennifer has 15 years of industry experience, starting her career as a Financial Advisor before moving into Participant Education within the recordkeeping industry. Jennifer spent three years educating 401(k) participants and eligible employees all over the country, developing a passion for helping individuals save enough for retirement. Since then, Jennifer has held roles in Participant Communications, Marketing and Sales within Empower's Large, Mega and Not-for-Profit business segment.

Jennifer holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Kansas, where she studied business administration and Spanish. She also maintains her Certified Financial Planner™ (CFP®) professional designation and a graduate certificate in financial planning from Kansas State University. Jennifer currently maintains FINRA Series 6, 63 and 65 securities registrations to coincide with sponsoring broker-dealer registrations and holds FINRA Series 7 credentials.
